The Family History Guide™

▶ For Beginners

The Family History Guide | thefhguide.com

Get a great start to your genealogy journey!

The Family History Guide can help you:

- Learn and improve on computer and Internet basics: using PCs or Macs, Windows, and browsers.

- Learn basic family history terms and concepts with ease.

- Gain a solid footing for navigating the family tree of your choice.

- Find great starter activities on the Get Started and 15-Minute pages.

- Enjoy a flexible learning system with Projects, Goals, Choices and Steps.

- Try the Beginner's Path, with a reduced set of options to focus on.

▶ SCAN to SEE the WEBSITE

Get started on your journey!

On www.thefhguide.com – Learning the Basics

From the Intro menu, select the Beginner's Path. This starting section has just a few items you can focus on.

Learn the basic computer and internet skills you need for doing family history:

Computer Basics

Learning Projects

Learn how to turn on a computer and use a mouse, how to navigate your computer's menus, how to create documents and spreadsheets, how to get started with social media, and much more.

Here are the Projects you'll use:

- PC Basics
- Mac Basics
- Gmail and Google Applications
- PC Application Skills
- Mac Application Skills
- PC Application Skills

Get Started

https://www.thefhguide.com/get-started.html

First Steps:

- Overview Video
- Take the Site Tour
- Beginner's Path
- Gather Your Memories

Also:

- Learn and Explore
- Activities and More

(Relax … we've got you covered!)